

Organizations working in the CHILDLINE in Orissa (Status Report up to January, 2011)

1098... A phone number that spells hope for millions of children across India, CHILDLINE is India's first 24-hour, free, emergency phone service for children in need of aid and assistance. Any concerned adult or a child in need of help can dial 1098, the toll free number to access our services. CHILDLINE not only respond to the emergency needs of children but also link them to services for their long-term care and rehabilitation. To date, it has reached out to over 10 million children across the nation through such calls. Established by the Government of India in 1999, it is presently operational in 83 cities across the country. The recent Integrated Child Protection Service envisages the expansion of the CHILDLINE service to all districts/cities. Presently, the CHILDLINE-1098 service is available in 5 cities in Orissa namely Bhubaneswar, Puri, Cuttack, Rourkela and Brahmapur.

The CHILDLINE service all over the country emphasizes on prevention, case intervention and networking.

As per the mandate of Integrated Child Protection Scheme (ICPS), CHILDLINE India Foundation started its operation to initiate CHILDLINE services in the rest of the 25 districts. Within 2011-12 another 8 districts would be covered by the CHILDLINE service. Information about these organizations who will be implementing this service in these districts would be available as soon as they get approval from the Ministry of Women and Child Development, Govt. of India
